

motionball* Hosts a Star-Studded Evening of DECADENCE to Celebrate a Decade of Young Professionals Supporting Special Olympics Athletes Through motionball's Mandate: Educate, Integrate, Celebrate.

What: DECADENCE – the 2011 gala celebrates motionball's decade of support for Special Olympics Canada and its growth from one Toronto chapter to a national movement donating more than $1.8 million to the Special Olympics Canada Foundation.

Who: motionball, a Canadian non-profit organization dedicated to raising funds for Special Olympics Canada and integrating Special Olympics athletes with the next generation of volunteers, donors and sponsors through social and sporting events.

Where: The Carlu. 444 Yonge Street. Toronto, Ontario.

When: Friday February 4th, 2011

7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.: VIP Reception (gourmet dinner & live performance by Matt Dusk)

9:00 p.m. - 2:00 a.m.: General Admission

Why: Because more than 300,000 Canadians have an intellectual disability and Special Olympics Canada enriches the lives of these Canadians by providing them with a sense of achievement, confidence and community through sport.

TORONTO (December 20, 2010): In celebration of a decade of support for Canada's Special Olympics athletes and its growth from one Toronto chapter to a national movement, motionball and AIRMILES present DECADENCE: the most lavish motionball gala to date, which aims to raise $250,000 in one night.

Held at The Carlu on Friday February 4th, 2011, and hosted by Entertainment Tonight Canada's Matte Babel, DECADENCE will feature performances by Keys N Krates, Scratch, Skratch, Scratch, Maestro Fresh Wes and Abstract Breaking Systems. Other luxe highlights include a Calvin Klein Underwear fashion show, a private art viewing by the Engine Art Gallery, a luxury silent auction and a raffle to win a $15,000 credit towards a Toyota Scion.

"Ten years ago I stood on the stage of the first annual motionball Toronto gala and promised the crowd that motionball would donate $1 million to Special Olympics Canada in a decade. Ten years have passed and after the 2011 Toronto gala we will have doubled our initial fundraising goal and then some - donating more than $2 million to the Special Olympics Canada Foundation. Our 10th anniversary gala is truly a celebration of where we've come from and where we're going next," said Paul Etherington, Chairman and Co-Founder of motionball.

Since its inception in 2001, motionball has succeeded in getting thousands of Canadians excited about doing something special for Canada's Special Olympics athletes. motionball's annual events include the Marathon of Sport, Football Frenzy and Fall Classic and have initiated lasting friendships between the athletes and those who support them.

With the help of a dedicated, passionate Board, generous donors and sponsors including AIRMILES, Molson Coors Canada and SunLife Financial, motionball has raised almost $2 million to date, and the movement is growing: motionball now has Vancouver, Calgary, Ottawa, Montreal and Halifax chapters.

About motionball

motionball is the brainchild of three best friends, who also happen to be brothers. Mark, Sean and Paul Etherington have been aligned with Special Olympics Canada since childhood when they volunteered at fundraising events organized by their parents, who co-founded the Sports Celebrities Festival, which has raised in excess of $25 million for Special Olympics Canada since 1983. Noticing a lack of integration between supporters and the athletes they support, Mark, Sean and Paul Etherington brought motionball to life.

The motionball mandate is to introduce the next generation of donors, volunteers, and sponsors to the Special Olympics movement through social and sporting events that integrate young professionals with Special Olympics athletes. motionball strives to encourage Canadians to come together and raise funds and awareness to ensure the long-term stability of the Special Olympics in Canada.

About Special Olympics Canada

Special Olympics Canada, a registered Canadian charity since 1969, is a national organization that has provided positive, successful experiences through sport for thousands of Canadians with intellectual disabilities. Through involvement in Special Olympics programs these athletes have benefited physically, socially and emotionally, and have been offered a stepping stone to community integration and a new sense of belonging.
